WHEN THE BIG STORM COMES.

Courage, honest son of earth, vainly hustling
the job of life,
(Parents with vacant stomach, weary brain,
and empty fob):

Through the actors are disgusting, and the drama goes on,

Yet the powers that be are moving, and we'll see them just where the same.

In this dreary land of Grover, neither milk nor honey flows;

Party chosen and only where the promised golden groves;

And 'tis hard lines for the toller where no factory spindle hums.

When

The Big Storm Comes:

O, 'tis coming surely coming—we can see the
first dark clouds;

Of swift lightning, charged with vengeance,
that is glistening on the air;

We can hear the thundering from the woods of Maine

As the clouds roll on Northern mountains soon will
the clouds roll back again;

Then the armies of Protection will march forth in grand array.

To drive Free-Trade and Cleveland sham forceaseless strife;

And a million feet shall follow to the rolling
of the drums

As they sweep to certain victory

When

The Big Storm Comes:

Now the South is to the saddle and the North rules the street,

With their outfit of Free-traders, cranks and Coxsotives to boot;

As they strive to topple over their's fair
temple in a day,

And sit in the Northern progress in the old old Southern way.

But the voters will be heard from ere this devil's work is done.

With an avalanche of ballots that will startle
the world.

November's blizzard will chill their souls, from Congressmen to bum.

And they'll hustle for their celars
When

The Big Storm Comes:

James N. Boyd of new Dover has the banner tomato patch of that vicinity.

He gathered 1,300 boxes from it in one week, and the total product of the season will be enormous.

Then we went three deaths from diphtheria at Frankfort, and several new cases necessitating the suspension of Public Schools. The sanitary condition of the city is being improved.

The streetcar track is being overhauled generally and surfaced in particular.

People will find the riding much smoother and the company will be saving in the wear and tear of rolling stock.

An account of meeting of Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, the L. and

The Russellville Canning Factory put up 27,000 cans of tomatoes last week.

Maysville, but there isn't enough money
here to build a factory and hire Maysville workmen to do the goods.

Chancellor and D. P. Ort, C. D. Newell and J. W. Lee, Representatives from

Editor and Manager of The Mercury, City Club of Louisville, a prominent become healthy, hearty and long-lived—and change his politics—is the wish of the Lester.

THE EXPOSURES

Of the Lexow Senate Investigating Committee.

Many Other Members of the New York Police Force Implicated.

Serials Charge a Male Agent Inspector Malaughaugh-Green Goods Men Capture Another Victim in New York—He Will Be Held as a Witness.

NEW YORK. Sept. 14.—The latest exposures of the New York investigating committee, implicating many other members of the police forces besides those who were mentioned at the previous session of that committee, has set everybody talking.

The first to be mentioned is that the new exposures made against police officials are by far the most serious and damning yet brought out. The attack of the detective bureau and the exposure of the methods employed by some of its officers, who are openly charged in league with green goods operators, has caused somewhat of a sensation.

Eight on top of the exposures before the senate committee comes the charge next to the police force, and the only one in which it is alleged by the New York city civil service supervisory board that candidates for appointment on the police force had passed on fraudulent papers.

It is also charged that the original papers of the candidates in several cases, specified in the charges, had been stolen and others substituted while the papers were in the hands of the examiners on behalf of the police department.

Superintendent Byrnes has been directed to investigate the charges and report the result of his investigation to the police board. Assistant District Attorney Wellman has had charges in his office, and he has been more than those mentioned before the committee this week. Those implicated in the latest exposure before the committee are Inspector Williams, Capt. Schmitz, Capt. O'Farrell, Capt. Capt. James E. Price, of the 1st, 7th, 17th, 27th street stations; Detective Sergeant Hanley and Ex-Warden Henry McArdle, of the Grand Central depot squad.

It is very likely that the commissioners will go on with the trials early next week and that some of the officers will be dismissed in the very near future.

Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst Tuesday, according to the latest word, will go to the Lexow committee, would be the fittest man to succeed Recorder Smyth, whose term expires this fall. In nominating Mr. Gov. Dr. Parkhurst attacked Recorder Smyth, said:

"We are compelled by known facts to fear that there is just as truly a judicial ring as there is a police ring. It is probable that is not the only ring, but it is the most, and constantly than Recorder Smyth to produce in the mind of the community the conviction of the police force of the corruption and the inimitable integrity of its character."

"Either Recorder Smyth has all the way been a tool of the police force, or he has not known it. If he has not known it, he has been guilty of having talked about the police force, and if he has known it, he is as big a scoundrel as any of them, and first cousin to the police commissioners."

Acting Captain O'Toole, of the Leonard street police station, Thursday caught a green goods swindler red-handed. At the corner of Canal and Greenwich streets he saw three men in earnest conversation. He questioned them closely.

The two crouched reluctantly admitted that a week ago they had received a call from a man, who said his home near Duane St., where they knew a nursery. They had thought the matter a chance in a lifetime, so, taking $500 each, they came here.

The officers said their names were Leo and Herman, and Henry Schwirman. When they were searched the $1,000 and two big revolvers were found upon them. The third prisoner said his name was Herman Rosenblum. Rosenblum was held in default of $5,000 bail. The two "guy" wanted to go home at once, but they were held as witnesses.

As a Reduction.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. Sept. 14.—At a conference between committees representing the Green Glass Workers' league of the United States and Canada, and the hollow ware glass manufacturers the wage scale for 1894-95 was revised on a basis of 14 per cent. reduction on last year's prices. It was agreed that no additional apprentices would be taken, and that the term of 1894-95 as made was not satisfactory, and affect about 3,000 persons in the United States and Canada.

Child Burned to a Crisp.
A Youngful Murder.
Philadelphia. Sept. 14.—James J. West, whose meteoric career as publisher of the Chicago Times created a sensation, commenced his trial yesterday. He and his son, J. and Henry C. Heintzelman, his successors, laying claim to $300,000 for false arrest and malicious prosecution in 1889. A $500,000 suit in trover was also begun by Mr. West against the Huskamps, George M. Fullman and his wife, for $100,000, for a false hank for the purpose of recovering the face value of the $100,000 worth of Times stock which was hypothecated by Mr. West and sold by the Huskamps, it is alleged, illegally.

Ministers' Sons.

Baltimore. Sept. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kendall, Hatch Bovier and Postmaster Redding came down from Rainy Lake Thursday noon. Bovier had two big gold bricks worth nearly $10,000, the rest of a day's run. The forest and gold district have done much good by clearing the ground of dead timber and leaves and making it possible to do more exploratory work in one day than previously in a month.

A Funeral Robbed.

UPPER SANDY, Pa. Sept. 14.—Henry Gerner, a man who was waylaid by robbers, having been assaulted and relieved of $40 of pension money, he was found unconscious.

Southern Industries.

Killed by a Train.

AKRON, Ohio. Sept. 14.—Frank Mason, a well known young man of Cuyahoga Falls, was struck by a Pittsburgh & Western train and killed.

COL. T. G. LAWLER.
The G. A. R. Selects him as their Commander for the ensuing Year.

PITTSBURGH. Sept. 14.—After one of the most heated contests in the history of the veterans, Col. Thomas G. Lawler, of Pittsburgh, was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, defeating his only opponent, Col. Ivan N. Walker, of Indianapolis, by a narrow majority of 11 in a total vote of 6,000.

Considerable excitement attended the balloting, the two candidates frequently running neck and neck, while twice the Indiana man was in the lead. His friends had figured out that he had won by 6 majority until the result was known. The two candidates were the boys from Illinois in the theater as well as in the lobby and out on the sidewalk went fairly wild with enthusiasm.

Lawler's election marks the downfall of Col. Peter J. O'Farrell, an element that has long been all-powerful in the high councils and control of the order, and will lead to the appointment of a new quartermaster-general to succeed Gen. Louis Koenig.

The new commander-in-chief was of the most serious and daring yet brought out. The attack of the detective bureau and the exposure of the methods employed by some of its officers, who are openly charged in league with green goods operators, has caused somewhat of a sensation.

Eight on top of the exposures before the senate committee comes the charge next to the police force, and the only one in which it is alleged by the New York city civil service supervisory board that candidates for appointment on the police force had passed on fraudulent papers.

It is also charged that the original papers of the candidates in several cases, specified in the charges, had been stolen and others substituted while the papers were in the hands of the examiners on behalf of the police department.

Superintendent Byrnes has been directed to investigate the charges and report the result of his investigation to the police board. Assistant District Attorney Wellman has had charges in his office, and he has been more than those mentioned before the committee this week. Those implicated in the latest exposure before the committee are Inspector Williams, Capt. Schmitz, Capt. O'Farrell, Capt. Capt. James E. Price, of the 1st, 7th, 17th, 27th street stations; Detective Sergeant Hanley and Ex-Warden Henry McArdle, of the Grand Central depot squad.

The other officers elected by the encampment were: Senior vice commander, W. H. Denison; Major, G. N. Y.

grand treasurer of the Select Knights;

Major, Frank H. Landell, of New York city, are feared to have been lost and scattered in the mountainous Mexico.

Negotiations for the sale of the town of Allouez, Wis., to a New York syndicate are in progress. The purchasers intend to make a manufacturing town of it.

Major, Frank H. Landell, of New York city, are feared to have been lost and scattered in the mountainous Mexico.
